SAVANNAH, Ga. - Armstrong Atlantic State University senior setter Megan Pando has been named the Peach Belt Conference's volleyball Specialist of the Week for the fourth time this season with the league's release of its weekly awards today.

Pando turned in another outstanding week with 11.45 assists and 2.36 digs per set in three matches. The Oviedo, Fla., native had 44 assists against both Flagler and Florida Southern in four-set wins and averaged 12.67 assists per set against No. 23-ranked Palm Beach Atlantic. She added 13 digs against Florida Southern for a double-double and had two services aces against Palm Beach Atlantic.

The senior is now tied for the league lead with 10.52 assists per set as Armstrong won the PBC regular-season title outright on Friday against Flagler.

Pando was previously the league's Specialist of the Week this season on Sept. 30th, Oct. 14th and Oct. 28th. She is the first Armstrong player to earn four Specialist of the Week honors in one season and she is the first in the PBC to accomplish the feat since Anna Garrison of Montevallo in 2010.

Pando and the No. 19-ranked Pirates return to action on Tuesday, traveling to Francis Marion for a 7:00 p.m. Peach Belt Conference matchup with the Patriots.
